Presbyterian Music Camp

In Their Shoes

sunday august 23 to sunday august 30, 2009

This week we will examine the life and legacy of Christ as seen and experienced by those who touched his life.

In Their Shoes

Each day of our camp will focus on different people, from little Zaccheus, the hated tax collector, to Pontius Pilate, who, you could argue, was just doing his job.

Spend a week in their shoes.

Walk for a week and arrive at a new understanding.

Presbyterian Music Camp takes place on a large, natural site.

Facilities include camp cabins with bunks (bring your own bedding), an unserviced tent/trailer area, dining hall, many performance spaces, recreation facilities, a beautiful private lakefront with qualified lifeguards.

Although the site is not specifically disabled accessible, we are sensitive to people with allergy, food, disability or mobility needs.

Please indicate your needs with your registration or by contacting the registrar.

Presbyterian Music Camp Statement of Purpose

At Music Camp our focus is Christ, and music is the principle means by which we celebrate Him. Ours is a camp for families and individuals who come together to experience Christian community.

The Camp Committee has found it necessary to introduce some changes to the fee structure and deposit schedule. Please read the Fine Print carefully.

Fees

- ♠ Confirmation letters and camper information packages will be sent to all registered campers in early July.
- ♠Campers 16 years and under must be accompanied by an adult (21 years or older). If the adult is not the camper's parent, contact the registrar for a permission form.
- ♠Limited bursaries are available from the Alison Stewart-Patterson Memorial Bursary Fund by applying to the registrar by June 1st. Tax deductible donations to the fund can be made through the registrar.

first time campers
are reminded that the camp program runs from Sunday to Sunday.

Our experience shows that new campers to Music Camp benefit greatly by being present for the opening night program.

If for some reason your plans do not allow you to arrive until mid-week, we would urge you to reconsider your participation until you are able to spend the entire week at camp.

Please contact the Registrar for more information.
